Award Winning Author Releases Newest Romance, Recipe for Disaster Celebrates with Kansas Booksigning and Reader Giveaways!

Award-winning romance author, Michelle M. Pillow celebrates the release of her newest print book, Recipe for Disaster, June 10, 2008. The author will be signing at the brand new Barnes & Noble on Rock Road and 21st in Wichita Ks, June 14, 2008. The first thirty readers will be given romance goody bags with treats from several romance authors. Recipients must be 18 or older.

Published by Virgin Books USA, a UK company with the Random House family, it is the third book in the romance series, Matthews Sisters. The last book in the series, Degrees of Passion, releases Fall 2008.

“The Matthews Sisters series is about the sisterly bond, which I think any woman with a sister can relate to. It’s the idea that no one can mess with my sisters, but me. It’s about being so close no words need to be said. It’s about being able to be so frustrated with and yet love someone at the same time. And occasionally seeing what the other person refuses to see. Family is a part of who these heroines are and though each sister is inherently different than the others, they are connected with a bond that can never be severed,” Pillow said.

“I loved researching the heroine, Zoe, and her career as a chef,” Pillow said. “She definitely has a talent in the kitchen I do not possess, though I do know my way around a microwave. With each new character comes a new set of challenges and rewards. That vast and varied array of research is one of the main reasons I love being a writer.”
